All About Strangers

Chris Spencer

a Little Golden Book

BY JORIN GARGUILO

IT CAME TO
THAT DREADEFUL DAY

AND SO THE HAM

JUST RAN

AWAY

A donkey is special, a donkey is pure, a donkey's not snooty about fresh lain manure. A donkey is noble, a donkey is proud. A donkey discovered Jesus Christ's shroud. A donkey's a burro in Mexico City, where La Cucaracha is his favorite ditty. It's said that young donkeys have magical powers, and if they were unhappy, there'd never be flowers! Be nice to donkeys, or else, as they say, you'll live to regret it, one cold, bloody day.

A rabbit is lucky! A rabbit is fun! A rabbit's efficient and gets all his chores done! A rabbit is silly, a rabbit can hop! But be good, little children! Some rabbits are cops! They'll be quick to arrest you and send you to jail. Do your parents love you enough to post bail?

Ah yes, the kitten. Friend to the witch. He leads young children by night to a ditch. The kitten will spook you with yellow green eyes. The first child who meets them's the first child who dies.
